49 Killed By Blast Off Maine Coast

CAPE ELIZABETH, Me. (AP) — Forty-nine died in the frigid waters of the Atlantic Ocean only three miles offshore after a terrific explosion which split their navy patrol boat amidships in New England's worst naval disaster of the war.

Only 13 of the crew of the patrol ship PE-36 survived the mysterious blast that came April 23 during a noon lull in target practice manoeuvres.

Many of the men were below decks when the explosion occurred and few had time to grab lifejackets as, stunned and bewildered, they struggled through debris-littered passageways.

Many of those who got over the side before the 430-ton vessel sank perished in the cold water when their numbed hands no longer could retain their hold on boxes, oil drums and shoring that floated in the wreckage.

Those who survived suffered internal injuries, cuts, shock and immersion. They had conflicting theories as to what caused the blast. Some believed they saw a submarine lurking nearby, but one was just as positive that it was not a torpedo that struck the ship.

Some thought the explosion sounded like that created by a depth charge or a mine.

The boilers of the vessel had been overhauled 10 days previously and were described as in good condition.

Britain Removes Many Controls

LONDON (CP)—Herbert Morrison, Minister of Home Security, announced in the House of Commons today the revocation of a large number of Defence Regulations, including the controversial 18-B providing for the detention of persons considered dangerous to the state. He warned, however, that many security controls must remain until after Japan's defeat.

Mr. Morrison said all persons still held under the 18-B regulation would be released immediately with the exception of "one alien who is to be deported." He did not name the alien.

35,000 Germans Held In Canadian Camps

OTTAWA (CP)—The 31,000 combatants and 4,000 merchant seamen in the prisoner-of-war camps in Canada today were paraded to hear a proclamation on the unconditional surrender of Germany read in English and German.

Admiral von Friedeburg, Supreme Commander of the German Navy, signs surrender pact as Field Marshal Montgomery looks on. An estimated 1,000,000 Germans laid down their arms in Denmark, Holland, and northwestern Germany.

'True Capitulation,' Says Stalin Of Final Nazi Act of Surrender

Stalin's "Thumbs Up."

LONDON (CP)—Marshal Stalin in a personal broadcast to the Russian people tonight said Germany's final act of surrender in Berlin "is not just a piece of paper, but a true capitulation of Germany."

"Now we can say with full foundation that this is the day of complete victory," he declared over the Moscow radio.

"All the suffering of the trials of our people in the defence of our Motherland were not in vain. Hitler declared three years ago, 'we shall destroy Russia.' Now, three years later, Germany has been completely destroyed."

"Comrades, the great patriotic war has ended in the complete victory of our great Red Army, which defended the independence of our Motherland," Marshal Stalin concluded.

"Glory to our great people, eternal glory to the heroes who gave their lives for the freedom and independence of our Motherland."

Marshal Stalin's speech, lasting 5½ minutes, made no reference to Germany's only remaining ally, Japan, or to the conflict engaging the United States and Great Britain in the Pacific.

Germans Fighting Among Themselves

WITH THE BRITISH 2ND ARMY (AP)—Germans fought Germans today in the small battle of Segeberg, 25 miles north of Hamburg.

More than 300 fanatic S.S. marines had turned the forest there into a little redoubt, declaring themselves against German civilians who surrendered.

The territory was made out of bounds for British troops, and German soldiers were sent into the redoubt by their commander to clear it out.

Kaiser Builds Homes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Henry J. Kaiser announced today he had gone into the home building industry to turn out houses that would sell for $4,000 to $5,000 at a monthly payment rate of less than $30.

British 14th Army Advances in Burma

CALCUTTA (CP)—British 14th Army troops pursuing Japanese forces east of Pegu toward the Thailand border scored advances Tuesday against stiff enemy opposition, a southeast command communique said today.

Other forces cleaning up enemy remnants in an advance south from Pegu have reached a point on the Prome-Rangoon railway 96 miles from Rangoon, the communique added.

Losses $4,000,000,000

LONDON (CP)—Sir John Anderson, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons today that a "safe" estimate of the war damage to Britain would be well over $4,000,000,000.

State Minister Of Britain Says Britons Robbed

LONDON (AP)—State Minister Richard K. Law told the House of Commons today Britain has made representations to Russia over "robbery of personal possessions" of British prisoners of war liberated by the Red Army. He further protested that British officers were not granted "adequate facilities" to visit forward areas and hospitals.

The dispute over prisoners was brought into the open by Moscow protests against the treatment of Russian prisoners freed by the British forces. The British government had contended some of these prisoners were in German military uniforms.

Mr. Law was asked whether facilities had been granted members of the British Embassy and British mission in Moscow to travel to and fro in Poland, Silesia, and the parts of Germany occupied by the Russians, in order to make contact with liberated Britons. He also was asked for "details of the representations which had been made in respect to violation of the agreement" with Russia.

"We are continuously pressing the Soviet government on these points," Mr. Law replied, "and now that there is actual contact between the Soviet forces and western Allies, it ought to be much easier to get a satisfactory settlement of them."

3 Island Men Freed in Germany

The names of two Victorians and one Duncan man are included in the list issued today by naval service headquarters of one officer and 59 ratings who were prisoners of war in Germany and now have been freed and are en route to the United Kingdom.

They are Lieut. Robin Blakeley Hayward, Duncan, and AB Joseph Bell and CPO. Cook Raymond Bruce Alan Stenning, both of Victoria.

Most of the men were taken prisoner when the Canadian destroyer Athabaskan was sunk in the English Channel a year ago. R.C.N. personnel still prisoner at last word include nine officers and 16 ratings captured at St. Nazaire, Dieppe, in Java, in Sicilian operations and from among survivors of the Athabaskan.

Lieut. Hayward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hayward, live in Duncan.

AB Joseph Bell, whose parents live at 424 Langford Street, joined the navy here following schooling at Regina.

Berlin Suffered More Than Other Damaged Cities

By HAROLD KING

BERLIN (Reuter) — This town is a city of the dead. As a metropolis it has simply ceased to exist. Every house within miles of the centre seems to have had its own bomb. I toured the capital from the east to the centre and back to the south this morning in company with Air Chief Marshal Tedder and the Russian military commander of Berlin, Gen. Berzarin.

The scene beggars description. I have seen Stalingrad, I lived through the entire London blitz, I have seen a dozen badly damaged major Russian towns, but the scene of utter destruction, desolation and death which meets the eye in Berlin almost baffles description.

Dozens of well-known thoroughfares, including the entire Unter den Linden from one end to the other, are wrecked. The town is literally unrecognizable.

The Alexanderplatz, in the east end, where the Gestapo headquarters were, is a weird desert of rubble and gaping smoke-blackened walls. From the Brandenburg Gate, everything within a radius of from two to five miles is destroyed. There does not appear to be one house in 100 which is even useful as shelter.

If Stalingrad, London, Guernica, Rotterdam, and Coventry wanted avenging, they have had it, and no mistake about it. All observers this morning agreed that it would probably be impossible to rebuild the centre of Berlin for many years, if ever.

Not All 16 Poles Believed Saboteurs

LONDON (CP)—Richard Law, Minister of State, told the House of Commons today the government did not agree with the Russian version that the 16 Polish leaders under arrest by the Russians were all saboteurs.

Civil Authorities May Call Out Army If Rioting Recurs

OTTAWA (CP)—The military has moved 1,000 troops to a point near Halifax to take care of any further contingencies arising from the "peace riots" which caused widespread damage in the Nova Scotia capital, it was learned this afternoon.

Arrangements have been made to call out the troops in aid of civic power if required by the Nova Scotia attorney-general but so far no requisition to that effect has been made, and the latest word reaching here is that the situation has improved considerably.

In addition to the movement of troops near the city, arrangements also have been made to supplement Provost forces there temporarily.

The government announced that it had ordered an immediate investigation into the surrender day and V-E Day disturbances in which stores were wrecked and broken into and several buildings set afire by the rioters.

Newspaper Demands Inquiry, Restitution

HALIFAX (CP)—In a newspaper editorial today the Halifax Star declared that "the rioting, looting and violence which raged unrestrained, and without obvious effort at restraint by the responsible service authorities whose personnel were the Prime instigators of the disorders, will be remembered by the people of this port city as one of the most disgraceful and despicable episodes ever witnessed in this or any other Canadian community."

Noting two factors which "stand out with unmistakable clarity," the editorial stated that "the responsible heads of the armed services and in particular the commander-in-chief of the navy (Rear-Admiral L. W. Murray) failed utterly to take the steps which the circumstances of Monday night's outbreaks indicated ought to have been taken . . . and failed utterly to take prompt and adequate measures to curb the rioting which was led mainly by naval personnel."

"In righteous indignation at what has been done to their city the people of Halifax demand: (1) A full court of inquiry; (2) Severe punishment for the responsible and the guilty; (3) Restitution by the Federal government for all those who suffered loss or damage as a result of yesterday's rioting."

Montreal Theatre District Looted

MONTREAL (CP)—Montrealers' peaceful celebrations of surrender day changed tempo on V-E Day and a mob looted the city's theatre district late Tuesday night.

A stringent police force dispersed the mob after 30 street cars had been damaged, a Quebec Liquor Commission store front smashed and the front exhibit of the Orpheum Theatre taken down to provide material for a bonfire in the middle of the street.

A group of civilians and servicemen tossed an iron post set in cement into the liquor store window but the Quebec Liquor police reported that no liquor had been taken.

2 Die in Crash Of Train, Truck

WHITEMOUTH, Man. (CP)—Two men were killed near here Tuesday when their truck collided with a Canadian Pacific Railway freight train at a level crossing. Whitemouth is 80 miles northeast of Winnipeg.

Killed were Anton Zolander of Milner Ridge, Man., and Stacey Cox of Beausejour, Man.

Shipyards to Keep Busy Until Well Into Next Year

OTTAWA (CP)—Munitions Minister Howe today called off war workers to stay at their jobs in an effort to bring about a quick defeat of Japan.

In a review of the immediate outlook for various phases of war production, Mr. Howe said some adjustments already had been made in production programs and the gradual conversion from war to peace output would be accomplished "with a minimum of disturbance."

He summed up the immediate prospects this way:

Aircraft—Production will continue indefinitely, with emphasis on more recent combat models and a reduction in trainers.

Shipbuilding—Continued high rate into 1946, with a possibility of increase in ship repairs.

Chemicals and explosives—Reduction in line with ammunition demands. Production for agricultural and other industrial needs continuing high.

Armored vehicles—A sharp reduction.

Automotive vehicles—A partial conversion from military to civilian requirements will keep plants fully engaged.

Railway equipment — Production to be increased.

Defence construction — Program completed.

Miscellaneous military stores—Little change, with demands continuing to be heavy.

"Production of civilian necessities so long deferred by the war, together with production for export to the liberated countries, will absorb manpower released by a lessening of war production, and this summer the labor demand will be heavy," Mr. Howe said.

In a more detailed review of production plans, he said the wartime shipbuilding program would keep shipyards busy well into next year. Yards have uncompleted orders for 70 transport ferries, 20 maintenance ships, four 10,000-ton store-issuing ships, four 10,000-ton cargo ships, 10 4,700-ton cargo ships, four Tribal class destroyers and a number of smaller ships.

U-Boat Sinking Off Rhode Island

BOSTON (AP)—Twelve men are missing and three were injured when a German submarine torpedoed and sank the U.S.S. Black Point, 5,533-ton coal carrier, off Point Judith, R.I., in the closing hours of the European war on Saturday night, May 5.

An official of the firm owning the collier said one submarine was reported destroyed by naval action.

Seaman Released

AB Joseph Arthur Bell, taken prisoner when H.M.C.S. Athabaskan was sunk off France last spring, has been released from German internment and is in the United Kingdom, according to a telegram received from Ottawa by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bell, 424 Langford Street.

Saskatchewan-born 22-year-old Bell was educated in Regina and enlisted with the R.C.N. here in 1941. Stationed for six months at H.M.C.S. Naden, he was then posted to the east coast where he served on convoy duty until early 1943. Drafted to Athabaskan, he was aboard during the action which ended her career off the coast of France.

In hospital at Orleans, France, for a time, suffering severely from burns, he was later moved to a prison camp in Germany.

Jubilant Citizens Cheer Victory Day Parade of Triumph

Thousands of Victorians who saw their city's triumphal V-E Day parade, Tuesday, will long remember the sight.

Jubilant citizens by the thousand lined the sidewalks of Douglas Street, surging over the curb to cheer and applaud as the procession, which signalled victory in the European theatre, marched from the Bay Street Armories to Beacon Hill Park.

A detachment of naval ratings headed by the Esquimalt Navy Band led the procession down the flag-bedecked street. Then came the Wrens. His uniform covered with confetti, Bandmaster G. E. Bowers led his Esquimalt Garrison Band, behind which marched a detachment of soldiers and one of Cwacs. They were followed by the Canadian Scottish and a group of wounded soldiers from Victoria Military Hospital riding in cars and station wagons.

Air Cadets' band headed the large group of airmen and W.D.s who marched next in the procession. After them came the Sea Cadets' band, the Sea Cadets and Wrenettes.

Other groups included Civilian Defence personnel, Girls' Pipe Band, Girl Guides, Brownies, Boys' Band, Army Cadets, Girls' Drill Team, each carrying a Union Jack, and the Highland Pipe Band.

Carrying a huge banner bearing the picture of Stalin were a delegation of Russian-Canadians. Other banners bore the names of the Ukrainian Canadian Association, Russian-Canadian Federation, Workers' Benevolent Association. Behind them were a group of girls in Russian peasant costumes.

They were followed by the F.O.E. Band and the veterans of the First World War, wearing their ribbons and medals. Members of the Chinese community carried flags of the United Nations.

Last group included members of the St. John Ambulance Association and the Red Cross Corps. Marking the end of the procession were a number of cars decked in red, white and blue streamers.

First car in the big procession was that of Police Chief J. A. McLellan and Mayor Percy E. George. Next car bore Reeve W. L. Woodhouse, Oak Bay; Reeve Thomas Hadfield, Esquimalt; Reeve E. Warren, Saanich.

Maj. G. A. Yardley was parade marshal. Ald. Edward Williams was in charge of the committee.

Price, Production Controls Remain, Says W.P.T.B. Chief

OTTAWA (CP)—Donald Gordon, Prices Board chairman, is expected to issue a statement, probably Friday, warning the public there will be no important relaxation of controls in the immediate future as a result of the surrender of Germany.

He conferred today with Finance Minister Ilsley and it was understood the question of a press statement was under discussion. Mr. Ilsley is the minister responsible for the Prices Board.

CONTROL IN U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—War-time controls over production, rationing and pricing will be continued in the United States until Japan is defeated, the government said today, but "some reconversion will start immediately."

Highlights of the program, as outlined at a White House news conference by War Mobilizer Fred M. Vinson:

1. Release of enough materials and manpower, no longer needed for the Pacific war, to produce a few new automobiles within six to nine months.
2. Some prospect of an early increase in gasoline allowances for civilian motorists.
3. Mr. Vinson said he saw no indications of any early general improvement in the civilian food supply situation.
4. No general reduction in taxes until final victory is won.

Canada Thanked By Churchill For Her Share In Allied Victory

SAN FRANCISCO — A message sent to him Tuesday by Prime Minister Churchill was made public here by Prime Minister King, who said it was a tribute of which the people of Canada would be proud.

Mr. Churchill's message said: "On this historic day when the forces of tyranny in Europe have met their final doom, I send on behalf of the people of the United Kingdom to the government and people of Canada our heartfelt congratulations on Canada's magnificent contribution to our common victory. For nearly six long years we have marched together in a common crusade against an enemy who twice in our generation has sought to dominate and enslave the free nations of the world.

"Canada may well be proud of the glorious deeds of her sons in arms on land, on the sea and in the air. She has played a nation's part. Her valiant army was the sure shield of this country during its darkest days and has now contributed powerfully to the liberation of western Europe.

Movies Record Ratification In Berlin of Germany's Surrender

LONDON (CP)—A stern and coldly formal ceremony in Berlin, officially ratifying Germany's unconditional surrender, was described today by the Moscow radio.

The momentous document, the broadcast said, was signed in a grey house on the corner of Wiesenerstrasse and Rheinstraasse by three top-ranking officers of the beaten enemy's land, sea and air forces.

Allied and Russian military chiefs watched as the papers were signed by Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel as commander of the German army; Admiral Gen. von Friedeburg, navy commander, and Col. Gen. Stumpf, a representative of the air force.

Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov, commander of the 1st White Russian Army, presided over the ceremony for the Soviet Union. The Allied supreme command was represented by a delegation headed by Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder, deputy to Gen. Eisenhower. It included Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander of the U.S. strategic air forces in Europe, and Admiral Sir Harold Burrough of the Royal Navy, commander of the Allied naval forces in Europe, the broadcast said.

The French delegation was headed by Gen. de Lattre de Tassigny, commander of the French 1st Army.

Andre Vishinsky, Vice-Commissar for Foreign Affairs, also was with the Russian delegation.

The Moscow radio gave this step-by-step account:

"In a large, plainly-furnished hall, with windows on two sides, long tables were prepared and the hall was decorated with the national flags of the Soviet Union, the United States, Great Britain and France.

"At midnight exactly, Marshal Zhukov and Air Chief Marshal Tedder entered the hall.

"Zhukov addressed the gathering.

"Gentlemen," he said, "we have gathered here... to accept, the terms of unconditional surrender from the command of the German armed forces. I propose we set to work and invite the plenipotentiaries of the German command.

"Thereupon, on orders of Marshal Zhukov, the Germans were led into the hall at 12.10 in absolute silence.

"Marshal Zhukov said:

"Gentlemen, the signing of the act of unconditional surrender will now take place. I address myself to the representatives of the German command: Have they the act at hand; have they acquainted themselves with it and are the plenipotentiaries of the German supreme command prepared to sign this act?"

"Tedder addressed the same question to the Germans.

KEITEL SPEAKS

"Yes, I agree," said Keitel quietly, and he handed Marshal Zhukov the document of Supreme Headquarters, signed by Admiral (Karl) Doenitz, authorizing (the Germans) to sign the act of unconditional surrender.

"The necessary formalities having been observed, Marshal Zhukov asked the German plenipotentiaries to sign, which they did.

"At this moment cameras and movie apparatus shot the scene.

At 12.45 the act was signed. One copy of it was handed to Field Marshal Keitel. Then Marshal Zhukov declared:

"The German delegation may now retire."

Pope Issues Call For 'Just Peace' For All Countries

ROME (AP)—Pope Pius, expressing thankfulness at the termination of the war in Europe, declared today his conviction that "if we want to build a lasting and a safe peace, it must be built on justice, comprehension and confidence."

Voicing gratitude to God for the arrival of peace in Europe, His Holiness prayed, also, for the end of the war in the Far East "according to justice."

The Pontiff advocated the release and return to their homes as "soon as possible" of all prisoners of war and internees, who could aid in the vast task of rebuilding wrecked Europe, and could help prevent continued "misery and hunger."

Speaking over the Vatican radio from his private library, the Pope said that "at last the present war has ended after more than six years of suffering. A cry of gratefulness goes up from our hearts to our beloved God."

"We remember all those who have fallen in this war, and we feel that the fallen are warning the survivors and expressing their hope that justice and equality of right among all states, big and small, strong and powerless, may be brought about after this war."

Eisenhower Charges A.P.'s Kennedy With Breaking Confidence

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower, in a message sent through War Department channels to Kent Cooper, executive director of the Associated Press, said that Edward Kennedy's suspension for filing a dispatch reporting Germany's unconditional surrender was "due to self-admitted deliberate violation of (of) Shaftey regulations and breach of confidence."

Gen. Eisenhower replied to a message sent 24 hours previously by Cooper, protesting against the suspension of Associated Press filing facilities in the European theatre of operations, which suspension was lifted Tuesday after being in effect less than seven hours, and adding:

"Finally, if the restriction is applied because of the action of one individual, please not only give me the charges against him but quote to me his explanation in answer to the charges, since apparently I am unable to communicate with him myself."

REPLY FROM GENERAL

The text of Eisenhower's reply follows:

"Associated Press suspended during investigation of method transmission of release unauthorized story this date submitted Shaftey censorship channels, reference your message to Gen. Eisenhower dated 7 May. Suspension filing privileges Associated Press revoked and authority now granted correspondents other than Ed Kennedy to submit material for transmission. Kennedy suspended due self-admitted deliberate violation Shaftey regulations and breach confidence. Investigation filing story by Kennedy continues and report results of findings will be communicated you as soon as practicable."

NO DIRECT REPORT

Since Gen. Eisenhower gave no report of Kennedy's side of the story and in the absence of any direct, first-person report from the AP's suspended Paris bureau chief, otherwise, Cooper forwarded Eisenhower's message with the following note to AP headquarters in Paris:

"Kennedy message received from Eisenhower contains your reply for which I asked in interest fair play. If you are permitted to give your reply in answer to this unilateral proceeding please rush it."

A message from Reiman Morin of the AP's Paris staff, received this afternoon, said the text of Gen. Eisenhower's message to Cooper had not been issued there. Morin added that "authorities claim they unaware—(Eisenhower) making one."

Earlier today, a dispatch from

Naval Terms of Surrender

ALLIED SUPREME HEAD QUARTERS, Paris (AP)—The text of the "Naval Terms of Surrender":

The following statement deals with the manner in which the German navy surrendered to the Allies.

For the information of the public, it may be stated that all German and German-controlled warships, auxiliaries, merchant ships and other craft at sea are being ordered to report their positions in plain language to the nearest Allied wireless telegraph station, and are being given orders to proceed to such Allied ports as directed. They will remain in those ports until further directions are received.

All warships, auxiliaries, merchant ships and other craft in harbor are being ordered to remain in harbor.

U-boats at sea are being ordered to surface, to fly a black flag or pennant, and report their position in plain language to the nearest Allied wireless telegraph station. They will then proceed on the surface to such port as may be directed.

All warships and merchant ships, whether in port or at sea, are being instructed to train all weapons fore and aft. Breech blocks will be removed and torpedo tubes will be unloaded.

In harbor, all ammunition, explosives, torpedo warheads and all portable weapons will be landed. Mine-sweeping vessels and salvage vessels, though similarly disarmed, will be instructed to complete with fuel, if necessary, and to prepare themselves immediately for minesweeping or salvage service as directed.

Instructions will be given for boom defences at ports and harbors to be kept open. Demolition charges and controlled mines and minefields at all ports and harbors are to be rendered ineffective.

All personnel will be ordered to remain either on board their ships or in their establishments until other directions are received.

The practice of wearing objects around the neck dates from the Stone Age.

Morin gave details of Kennedy's procedure in dispatching the first eyewitness report on the signing of unconditional surrender by the Germans at Reims. Morin's dispatch said:

TODAY IN MOSCOW

IN THE SQUARES OF MOSCOW A TRIumphant people gave themselves up today to their first celebration of victory in Europe—the formal end of their war against the Nazis. In other parts of the free world,
men and women completed their observance
of the great day, straightened their shoulders
and turned to the job ahead—the subjugation of the Japanese.

As those who still have a long way to go
before they can signalize final peace began
the vast undertaking of converting production
and personnel from use for the European theatre to the Pacific, men's eyes
looked beyond Russia's victory events to her possible participation, in some form or another, in the war against the Japanese.

Marshal Stalin, while he has been blunt
in his rebuffs of the nation which made the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, has not yet
given any clear indication of his country's desire to open actual hostilities against the Asiatic Axis partner. What the future may hold in that respect is a matter for speculation.
What the immediate past has revealed
is a glorious record by the onrushing legions
which fought Germany under the banner of the hammer and the sickle. It is natural that men here should hope so stal-
wart an ally would again stand shoulder to shoulder with others of the United Nations
against the last foe. But that hope should in no way impinge upon the tribute to Russia
today for which Prime Minister Churchill called in his speech yesterday. Against the scourge of Europe, Soviet forces dealt mighty and telling blows.

With or without her help, the Allies will defeat Japan utterly. The road to final victory is clear, if long. True Russian participation could shorten it, but in any analysis
of the Soviet contribution, her achievements
against Germany should be given prepon-
derant attention, rather than any speculative future action she may take in the Pacific.

TO THE MERCHANT MARINE

IN OUR OUTPOURING OF GRATITUDE
to the navy, army and air forces, let us
not forget what is owing to the men of the Merchant Navy who made it possible to beat Germany to the ground. It is well to recall that the great strategic advantage enjoyed
by Germany was that of internal lines of communication. At whatever point on the outside circumference of her advance she
could be held, it was comparatively easy for her to bring to bear on that point, in short order, the material equipment necessary to its defence. At whatever point she chose to strike, she could quickly concentrate the strength calculated to thrust through to the objective she wished to attain. The Allies
from beginning to end labored under the terrible handicap of distance, of lines of supply enormously vulnerable to undersea and
air attack for thousands of miles.

If those lines of supply had not been maintained disaster would have been swift
and certain for the men on the fighting
fronts. From beginning to end the Merchant Navy ploughed those lines through fields of mines and of constant attack by submarine
and airplanes. Almost defenceless, entirely dependent on their naval escorts, they kept ploughing away to finish the furrow in some
far off port, unload their cargoes, and turn
home again, not for rest or change, but to start all over again. Going and coming, they endured sheer physical strains few men
have been called upon to endure so long,
almost unrecognized, lost behind the spum-
ing fury of the front lines.

The men of the Canadian Navy, which played such a great part in guarding and
guiding them on their course in the Atlantic,
have often paid tribute to their patience,
cheerfulness and endurance. Time and again
they were scattered to avoid complete loss.
Time and again they reassembled to resume
their course. Time and again they counted
from their decks those that were missing.
Time and again wind and wave were almost
as hard to combat as their enemies above
and below the surface of the sea.

But they kept open the line of supply,
the bloodstream of our men in the field.
From the "Jervis Bay" to the last vessel
launched from our yards, the ships are manned by men whose heroism and steady
endurance are one of the great epics of the war. The drama of their job is that it is unspectacular. They just go slogging along,
day in and day out, churning the road to victory all over the seven seas. The greatness
of their job is that they "carry on" under
any and all circumstances.

SWORD AND SCABBARD

AT THE SAN FRANCISCO CONFERence two contrasting opinions are presented themselves for decision. The first is the exercise of power, the second is the responsibility of obligation. The contrast explains the influence on the delegates of the constantly encroaching Polish question
which creates suspicion and excites mistrust.
The Russian view is that to attain peace
and security through collective action there must be an overriding power. The British and American view is that peace and security can only be attained by an overriding

sense of obligation. Thus the Russians explicitly consider that in the case of Poland
power alone has restored Poland to freedom;
power alone can maintain that freedom
against future aggression and that the exercise of such power, due to the geographical,
economic, political and similar factors must be the responsibility of Russia. And Russia
might add that it was the failure to exercise power reposing in the League of Nations which brought about the war. Therefore, from the Russian point of view, it is obvious that any Polish government must
be more responsive to friendship with Russia than to a somewhat impractical obligation to the United Nations.

In contrast, the British and Americans
place, as a corollary to power, the obligation to standards of behavior in international relations. They regard the sanctity of contract, the signed treaty, the responsibility
engendered by self-government, the exercise
of the spirit of humanity, the freedom and
dignity of the individual, as of paramount
importance in framing the charter of the United Nations.

The Russians would argue that theoretically these are excellent sentiments but that sentiment is an unstable foundation for human relationship. The British and Americans hold that without a sentiment for fulfilling obligations the exercise of power remains the inspiration for aggression.

It is obvious that there is a gulf of varying dimensions between these two points of view, but that it can be bridged by an understanding which combines realism with
responsibility for any obligation undertaken
in good faith. That is why Poland is providing something in the nature of a test
case between the two points of view. That is why Russia desires to be quite certain that there is no weakening of the power to be exercised by the Big Three in case of aggression. Russia attaches extreme importance to the power of veto and the number of votes in the Security Council because it is the Security Council which must act. It must not spend its time in discussion. It is vested with power which was won by the Big Three in the war at immense sacrifice.

So that as the question of standards of human conduct are an important issue in the exercise of the power to exercise war, the answer of the San Francisco Conference to that issue is to demand that those who are invested with power must also exercise the
right spirit of human conduct and obligation; that the sword must be sheathed in
the scabbard of justice.

A SOUR NOTE

MANY NOISE-MAKERS CONTRIBUTED
to the cacophony of informal V-E
celebrations on Monday, but none could have
struck a greater discord than the sour note
of Camillien Houde, mayor of Montreal.
On Sunday, when men waited hopefully for
the news which they received a few hours
later, the former internecine was telling a
public meeting:

"I would not be surprised if tomorrow we
are asked to fight against allies of today. . . .
I would not be surprised if Canada's armed forces are obliged to stay in Europe to fight
today's allies after V-E Day."

Mayor Houde, without naming the country, let it be known he referred to Russia.
His remarks come at a peculiarly inappropriate time, when efforts are being made to create an understanding of the Russian position, when difficulties between
the western democracies and the Soviets are
the subject of conciliation at San Francisco.

The words of the Montreal chief magistrate will be taken in many circles as an
enunciation of the philosophy of the movement he leads, and his exhortation to "every
well-thinking French-Canadian to see your
parish priests and directors of organizations
so that the people of Quebec remain united
as in the plebiscite of 1942" can scarcely add
anything to the cause of unity in Canada.

IN THANKFULNESS

A PART FROM THE NATURAL SPIRIT
of exuberance, particularly among the younger element, Victoria's official celebration of V-E Day followed the lines of deep thankfulness and the clear understanding its organizers had planned. The massed crowds
which attended the event in Beacon Hill Park and saw the excellent parade provided
conclusive evidence of the city's appreciation
of the nature of the event.

The orderliness of the proceedings, the
earnestness written on the faces of spectators, spelled the proper significance the
public attached to the day.

And today, Victoria has gone back to work. The general opinion might be summed up by the remark, "It was a good show. Now let's get on with the rest of the job."

STILL TIME FOR BEAUTY

AT A TIME WHEN THE GIGANTIC
events of the world of men have so
fully preoccupied the public mind, it is important to note among Victorians those conscientious and inspired people who have been able to devote some of their time to
the creation of beauty.

The illustration of last week's spring
flower show serves to remind the majority
that this is a season of loveliness. Not only was the show a distinct success, it was an opportunity for scores to find refreshment
in the clear, clean beauty of the flowers.
It must have reminded others that the dog-
wood is in bloom on the highways, lending
the waxen perfection of its white, cream
and pale green triumph to woods that are rich now in other growth.

"The majority of young criminals had religious training." No, they didn't. They were only exposed to religious ritual

Czech Blueprint

A POLICY BOTH realistic and fair is outlined by the new Czechoslovakian government for its internal adjustments following liberation from the oppressor. The blueprint assumes significance through the importance attached to the democracy prior to the war as well as the possible leadership
it may afford other countries which are seeking to build something better from
the wreckage of occupation.

Below is the Czechoslovakian Press Bureau outline of that phase of the nation's
re-establishment:

In its internal policy, the government
starts from the basic premise of the Czechoslovakian Constitution that the people are the only source of state power. The elected national committees are the new organs of public administration. All administrative and tyrannical organs introduced by the occupation and traitor regime will be abolished.
Communities in districts with a majority of unreliable non-Slavonic populations will be temporarily administered by an appointed administration. Members of the national committees are proved fighters against the usurpers and traitors. Caution will be exercised so that no elements which collaborated with the occupants and supported
the traitors will be smuggled into the committees. They will be barred from entering political, trade union, cultural, sport or other organizations.

EQUAL RIGHTS for women will be consistently introduced; the franchise age
will be lowered to 18; and the franchise will
be extended to include the armed forces.
Traitors to the nation and collaborationists
will be deprived of their right to vote. All constitutional rights will be fully assured,
and discrimination on racial grounds will
not be allowed.

A special charter program deals with the recognition of the Slovaks as a national independent nation. The government will,
from the beginning, consistently endeavor
to plan that relations between the Czechs
and the Slovaks, according to the maxim,
"Equal among equals," are put into practice and thus assert the brotherhood between the two nations. The Slovak National Council is not only the representative of the Slovakian nation, but also the bearer of the state power on Slovakian territory.

The government will take care that the Carpatho-Russian question raised by the inhabitants of that country will be settled as soon as possible. The government will wish
this question solved according to the democratically expressed will of the Carpathian
and Ukrainian people in complete friendship
between Czechoslovakia and the U.S.S.R.

THE TERRIBLE experiences of the Czechs
and the Slovaks with the German and Hungarian minorities will force restored
Czechoslovakia to a deep and lasting act
against the guilty. Loyal German and Hungarian citizens who proved their faithfulness
to the republic in the difficult times will not be affected. Czechoslovakian citizenship
for Germans and Hungarians will be confirmed only for anti-Nazis and anti-Fascists
who fought for Czechoslovakia, already before Munich and who, after March 15, were persecuted for their adherence to Czechoslovakia, or who fled abroad and participated in the struggle for the restoration of Czechoslovakia. Czechoslovakian citizenship of the other Czechoslovakian German and Hungarian citizens will be cancelled. Although they may again express a choice for Czechoslovakia, public authorities will retain the right of individual decisions. Condemned transgressors, if not under capital punishment, will be expelled from the republic.
The government considers it its duty to punish all war criminals, traitors and active
helpers of the German and Hungarian oppressors.

The government will carry out its task
without delay and will not spare anyone.
Persons guilty of high treason, like Hacha,
all members of the Beran government who confirmed Hacha's so-called Berlin Pact, all members of the "Protectorate" government
from March, 16, 1939, and Tiso and the members of the so-called Slovak government
from March 14, and members of the so-called Slovak parliament, will be brought
before the national court.

ALL OF HACHA'S political and official
helpers, traitors, journalists, and func-tionaries of all organizations who helped the Germans, the people who surrendered
Czechs and Slovaks to the Gestapo will be tried. In Slovakia, the helpers of the Tiso regime will be tried, especially those who were active against the Slovakian uprising.
Bankers, industrialists, and big landowners
who helped the Germans to plunder the land
and wage war will also be punished. All Fascist organizations will be banned and a renewal of the Republican Party (Agrarian Party and its branches and parties which in 1938 fused with the Slovak Hlinka Party)
will not be permitted.

To make good the crimes committed by
the usurpers and their helpers against
national and private property, an attempt
will be made to take into custody the property of citizens of enemy states, especially
of Germans and Hungarians and of Czechoslovakian citizens who betrayed the nation
and actively helped the usurpers.

Measures for a new land reform will be governed by the endeavor to free Czech and Slovakian land once and for all from German and Hungarian aristocrats and traitors,
placing it in the hands of Czech and Slovakian farmers and peasants. Confiscation of landed and other property connected with
it will be done without compensation
through the national committees. Priority
in land and property priority will be given
to persons who helped the struggle for national liberation; Partisans, soldiers, victims of foreign terror, etc. Allotted land will pass into full ownership against a small compensation to be used for the improvement of agriculture.

COMMENT ON MR. BIRD

May I comment on Mr. Bird's
letter in the Times of May 4?

While I have not read the book
he mentions, I must state Mr.
Hayek is on sound grounds when
he states, "That state intervention and state planning in economic affairs leads to Fascism."
Mr. Bird says, "It certainly did
in Germany and Italy, but the astonishing success of Russia in
her efforts toward socialism,
proves Hayek wrong." What a confused state of mind! Is it not a fact that Russia was the first country to adopt a policy of 100
per cent state ownership and regimentation?

Is it not a fact that Germany
and Italy learned much from Russia in organizing special police forces, framed trials, liquidations, etc.? The success of Russia Mr. Bird is so enthusiastic over is the huge industrial machine they are building in all parts of that vast country with

capital received from the exploitation of the privileged class.

There is one thing Mr. Bird
and his C.C.F. friends with their program of state ownership will not, or can not, see is that the modern state, no matter what ever its form, stands as a guardian of the capitalist class. State ownership is not socialism, as claimed, neither is it a step towards socialism, but its opposite,
intense nationalism. History has proven conclusively directly the state of any country takes over
and operates the industries and
transportation system, that state
becomes the national capitalist
and at once proceeds to regiment
and persecute the workers in the interest of the state capitalist class.

It should be clearly understood
that socialism must be international, it can not be brought about in any one country. Our only concern with the false the-

ories of the C.C.F. and their friends the labor parties abroad
is that they assist in the perpetuation of capitalism and working class misery, thereby defer-
ring the coming of socialism by their confusion.

use Fleischmann's fresh Yeast

Serve plenty of bread these days to give your family
enough of the energy food they need. Supplying Vitamin B, bread is a quick energy replacer—low in cost.
Fine, too, as a stretcher for scarcer foods! If you bake at home, use Fleischmann's fresh Yeast—Canada's favorite for over 70 years. You can count on it every baking. Ask your grocer for Fleischmann's fresh Yeast, with the familiar yellow label.

MADE IN CANADA
SUPPLEMENT YOUR DIET by eating 2 cakes of FLEISCHMANN'S fresh Yeast every day. This fresh
Yeast is an excellent natural source of the important

PLACE

"Boys will be boys" and in that process they often give their Bikes hard usage far beyond reasonable wear and tear.

They soon get to know where they can have their "Bikes" "fixed", or obtain new long-wearing Dunlop tires and accessories and those all-important genuine C.C.M. spare parts. Invariably "that place" is at the sign of the C.C.M. dealer.

There are over 2,000 such dealers in Canada forged into a long chain of country-wide service for the convenience of C.C.M. Bicycle Riders.

Remember these things when you go to select a bicycle—remember, too, that C.C.M. Bicycles have been made in Canada for over 45 years.

Bicycle rationing on a voluntary basis, as instituted by the bicycle dealers
of Canada in co-operation with the manufacturers and the "W.T.P.B." (War-time Prices and Trade Board), is still in effect. If you need a bicycle, and qualify as an essential user, go to your C.C.M. dealer and fill in a Bicycle Purchase Application Form and he will supply you with a new
C.C.M. from stock or within a reasonable time.

And should you ever need parts, service, Dunlop Tires or accessories, follow the lead of the boys—they know—and go to a C.C.M. dealer. Then you, too, can say "There's the Place I Get my Genuine C.C.M. Parts"—

Solemn High Mass

A solemn High Mass of thanksgiving on the conclusion of hostilities in Europe was said at St. Andrew's Cathedral Tuesday.

Mass was chanted by Rev. G. O. Penfold, with Rev. A. J. Gaudette, deacon, and Rev. A. Johnston, sub-deacon. Bishop John C. Cody assisted at the throne and his chaplains were Father Maurus, O.S.B., and Father L. Laporte, army chaplain.

The choir was in charge of Father A. E. Leonard.

"Unless we are true to Christian principles, we will not be worthy of those who paid the supreme sacrifice." Rev. A. McGowan, R.C.N., pastor of St. John the Baptist Church at Comox, said in his sermon.

He paid tribute to all those who were instrumental in bringing peace, adding "the best of human efforts are to no avail without the intervention of Divine Providence."

Johnston-McLuhan Nuptials Solemnized

The marriage took place Saturday evening in First Baptist Church of Margaret Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLuhan, Central Park Apartments, and Grant O'Hara Johnston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston, 1010 Queens Avenue. Rev. G. A. Reynolds performed the ceremony.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a tailored costume of beige gabardine with brown accessories and a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and mauve sweet peas. Mrs. Robert Macmillan attended her sister as matron of honor, and chose a frock of yellow and green silk with matching hat and corsage bouquet of African daisies. Don Haughton was groomsmen.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and immediate relatives, when Mrs. McLuhan assisted in receiving the guests. Rev. Reynolds proposed the toast to the bride and Mrs. Cecil Ashton poured tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside in Victoria following a honeymoon on the mainland.

TRY
YOUR CHILD
THIS WAY

Authorities say the difference between husky children and those who are poor eaters, underweight and nervous is often simply a matter of proper nourishment, especially an adequate supply of vitamins.

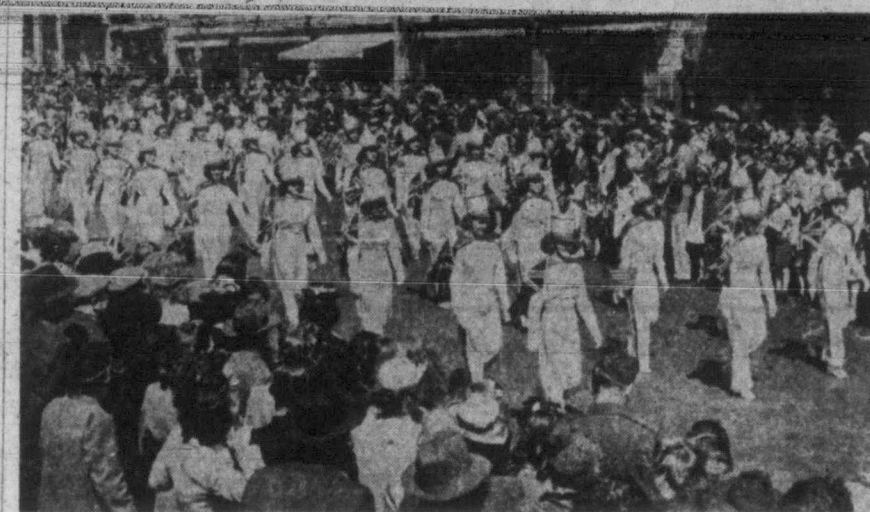

But vitamins alone are not enough. For authorities now agree that vitamins do not work alone. They work as a team with certain other food elements.

For this reason, thousands are switching to Ovaltine. Unlike mere "vitamin carriers," Ovaltine food beverage contains not only extra vitamins but nearly all the precious food elements needed for health and top vitality. These include Vitamins A, B<sub>1</sub> and D, the important minerals calcium, phosphorus and iron, high quality proteins and quick energy fuel—food—a combination of food elements authorities agree are needed for best results.

So, if your child is thin, nervous and not developing properly, why not turn to Ovaltine as thousands are doing. Three normal meals plus two glasses of Ovaltine a day give your child all the extra amounts of vitamins and minerals needed for health and top vitality.

March in Victory Procession

Victoria's famed Girls' Drill Team drew applause from the crowds as they marched along Douglas Street in Tuesday's V-E Day parade.

Wrens Invade Pay Parade On Navy Ships

A NEWFOUNDLAND PORT—The rolling tide of the feminine invasion has captured yet another bastion in Canadian naval tradition—pay-parade.

Navy pay-days involve a ritual as masculine as the everyday tot of rum, and bearded and tattooed sailors here haven't recovered yet from the shock of seeing their first Wren at pay-parade.

Reactions were varied, at first none of them favorable. Many, called on the powers that be to explain "what this Navy was coming to," with appropriate Anglo-Saxon adjectives thrown in to suit the individual taste.

Now, the men in each ship tie up in this busy port have "their" pay-Wren. Woe betide the accountant officer who arrives on board with a different Wren replacing one already popular for her cheerful smile, courteous manners and knowledge of her job. It just can't be done. The officer is met by queries on every side.

It was a slow, hard battle, however. The Wrens had traditions of centuries against them—besides man's inherent distrust of a woman's intelligence.

OLD TRADITION

In the first place, they were told, women have no place on board ship. In the second place, pay-parade in the Royal Canadian Navy today is conducted much as it was in the British Navy of Nelson's time—from lining up the men according to length of service on the ship to placing the money on top of his cap. And Nelson, history confirms, did not have Wren pay-writers.

As to expecting a mere woman to understand the intricacies of a complicated ship's ledger—that, of course, was unbelievable.

Now, however, the men speak just as highly of their Wren pay-writers as does the pay division commanding officer, Lt. Cmdr. (S) W. C. Mulvihill, R.C.N.V.R., Ottawa.

In June, 1944, there were only four pay-writer Wrens who went on board ships in harbor here and paid the men: L. Wrens Kay McKean of Liverpool, N.S.; Betty Schacter of Regina; Edith Jessett, of Winnipeg; and Virden, Man., and Dorothea Brooker of Calgary and Victoria. Now, there are 15.

Women's Round Table will meet Wednesday at 8 in the Council Chamber of the City Hall. Miss J. E. M. Bruce will lead a discussion on "How We May Beautify Victoria." There will be an election of officers.

OLD IDEAS MAKE LOT HARDER FOR GROWN LONE-CHILD

Dear Miss Dix: What good is life to a girl of 19 with problem parents? I've got them. Mine think I am unappreciative because I object to them finding fault with all of my friends. They accuse me of being selfish because, after staying with them every night of the week, I don't want to spend Sunday afternoon going visiting relations with them. I am inconsiderate because I let them worry about my being out as late as 11 o'clock on Saturday night, the only night that I step out.

Is there any way to deal with problem parents who keep one practically a prisoner, or will I have to run away from home, or get married to get any freedom? Believe me, being an only child is one of the worst fates that can befall one, as so much is expected of you.

AN ONLY CHILD.

BEHIND TIMES

Answer: What children should do with problem parents is just as much a riddle as what parents should do with problem children. Possibly it is even more difficult to solve because the parents are, at least, in the strategic position of being able to hold the whip hand over the children, whereas the children have no way of coercing Dad and Mom into behaving themselves and acting reasonably.

The trouble with your Father and Mother is that they are a whole generation behind the times in dealing with you. They want to force on you the code of conduct that was in vogue in Grandma's time, which is just as silly and impossible nowadays as it would be to make you ride in an oxcart instead of an automobile. And how you are to get them out of this notion and make them come up to date, goodness only knows.

They do not recognize that in these days all life has been speeded up and that a girl of 19 is just as sophisticated and knows more about the world and how to take care of herself than her Mother did when she was 29. So they worry over your not being home at 11 o'clock, and they want to hand-pick your friends for you, and they think they are giving you a treat when they make you spend your Sunday afternoons visiting stuffy old relatives with them.

All of which is a great mistake on their part and a great infliction on you, but running away from home or getting married isn't going to better your lot. It is jumping out of the frying pan into the fire. Your best plan is to re-educate your parents and bring them up to date.

SMALL BATS OF TROPICS BITE BIG TOES OF SLEEPING PEOPLE

Several hundred kinds of bats are known, and they differ widely in size and habits. Those in our climate are harmless to people and to crops, and help farmers by destroying insect pests.

In the Torrid zone, however, some of the bats damage animals and plants, and even hurt people.

Stories of demons known as "vampires" have been told in Europe for hundreds of years. This explains why the name of "vampire bats" was given to certain bats by early settlers in Latin America. The flying animals were accused of attacking animals and people, and of drawing blood from them.

HERE IS THE REAL CULPRIT, a tiny BAT

It was natural, perhaps, to pick out large bats as the ones which caused harm. Bats with a wingspread of two feet or more came to be known as vampire bats. Later study, however, has proved that this was a mistake. The dangerous members of the family were found to be small.

The true vampire bats have bodies about the size of mice, though their wingspread is 10 to 12 inches. Most of them live in Brazil, but some live elsewhere in South America and Central America. They have been reported in parts of Mexico, but are not common in that country.

One of these little bats will bite a cow or other animal, and will drink the blood which comes from the wound. People also have been bitten by these bats, usually in the big toe. We need not worry much about them, however, unless we happen to take a nap in an outdoor hammock while visiting the tropics.

Largest of all bats are the "flying foxes" of Asia and islands south of Asia. These animals have bodies which are as much as 12 inches long. In India and on the Island of Java, some of them measure five-feet from tip to tip of outspread wings.

Happily these gigantic bats eat fruit, not people. They are a pest on the plantations. Natives often shoot them and eat them. The flesh, we are told, tastes like that of rabbits, but for my part I would just as soon not see for myself what the taste is!

Ella Allen, J. Dundas Lead Victoria College Classes

Two Victoria girls, Ella K. Allen, second year, with an average of 93.9, and Judith Dundas, first year, with an average of 95.7, led Victoria College this year, according to the results released today by the University of B.C. Senate.

Ella is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen, 1775 Carriek Street, and Judith is the daughter of the Hon. and Mrs. K. S. Dundas, 786 Island Road.

The faculty of the college reports the work of the students is well up to standard.

SUPPLEMENTALS

Students who are entitled to supplementals, may improve their standing by writing the examinations held in September. Those who, on account of illness, have been granted deferred examinations, may write these at the time of the September supplementals. Students who intend to proceed to applied science at the University of B.C., have completed the work of the first year in arts and science, but have not obtained the standing required in certain subjects for admission to applied science, may likewise remove deficiencies by taking the September examinations.

A student is granted a supplemental in a subject which he has taken during the year, provided he has obtained a mark of not less than 30 per cent on the final examination. A candidate, however, will not be granted supplementals in more than six units of work. All students who may write supplementals, will receive written notification from the registrar's office.

CLASSIFICATIONS

The general pass list of full undergraduates and of conditioned undergraduates is classified as follows: (a) first class: 80 per cent and above; (b) second class: 65 per cent to 79 per cent; (c) passed: 50 per cent to 64 per cent; (d) passed with supplementals.

ORGANIZATION here over the week-end of a British Columbia association for basketball referees may prove one of the biggest boosts the sport has experienced in recent years. Year after year in island, coast and provincial finals team managers and players have protested on the refereeing. Their biggest squawk generally has centred around the different manner in which the officials interpreted the rules. How well I remember the arguments over referees that always took place when the Blue Ribbons and Dominos engaged in provincial senior men's finals against the mainland champions. Of course, I will admit that in that particular case the beefing was quite often for neutral officials.

HOWEVER, with the cage referees organized in all parts of the province a step has been taken in the right direction. It will give the boys, who take a lot of criticism from everybody and have many a friend when out on the floor, a chance to get together and work out a uniform interpretation of all rules. Basketball in general will benefit and it will mean that a team traveling from the coast to the interior or vice versa can be certain of playing under the same conditions as at home. Then again, the referees, with a provincial association, will have a higher standing and rate more consideration.

LEARNED today the fastballers are going to open their season, next week without a senior A men's division. The Lower Island body wound up with only three service entries and decided it would not operate a division solely for the benefit of army, navy and air force players as they already have a league of their own. Tommy Tuckers, who were expected to enter the league to make the fourth club, found it impossible to secure sufficient players to warrant their participating. However, it is possible Tuckers will get a club together for exhibition games and later in the season may file entry to represent this city in the British Columbia playoffs.

WITH NO senior men's clubs available for play at Athletic Park on Tuesday and Thursday nights, my advice to the fastballers is to bill the girls' teams on the number one diamond. The girls have a big following and I feel certain they would attract good crowds. There is plenty of glamour associated with these teams and the league should capitalize on it. The women's teams attract tremendous crowds in Vancouver and there is no reason why the local clubs cannot be promoted into a real attraction. With 13 women's teams in action this season the league never had a better opportunity to give them the spotlight. Playing at open parks last season the girls were always good for several hundred people and I feel they would hold their fans at the enclosed ground.

WITH THE news of Germany's surrender there is great speculation as to when horse racing will be resumed in the United States. From all reports the racing interests are ready to operate again at a moment's notice. It is felt that hockey, the first major sport to feel the war's effect, will be the first to recover, apart from racing.

Rainiers Back On Win Van As Portland Beaten

Portland's six-game winning streak was stopped, Seattle inched ahead in its comeback drive and San Diego moved into a virtual tie with Oakland for second place in the Coast League last night.

Victories by the Rainiers and Padres squeezed the first division into a tighter knot with only five games separating the first and fourth spot clubs.

The Beavers literally came apart at the seams in losing 10 to 1 at San Diego, committing four errors, two of which were made with the bases loaded. Don Pulford, Portland's usually reliable right-hander, was credited with the loss. He was sent to the showers after giving up seven runs in the first four innings.

Seattle took a 7 to 3 decision at Sacramento, scoring four runs in the first inning off Guy Fletcher, ace Solon hurler. The northwesterners pushed over their other three runs in the fourth. The win failed to boost the Rainiers out of fourth place but moved them within half a game of San Diego and Oakland which are separated by 3 percentage points.

Sun Stream Takes English Classic

NEWMARKET, Eng. (CP)—Lord Derby's Sun-Stream, a 5-to-2 favorite, won the One Thousand Guineas over the Bunting mile Tuesday in the first classic race of Britain's racing season.

Lord Rosbery's Blue Smoke was second and Mrs. Dorothy Page's Mrs. Father ran third. Sun-Stream came from behind to win by three lengths in the classic race for three-year-old fillies. Ridden by Harry Wragg, Sun-Stream waited her turn and finished exceptionally strong.

JIMMY FOX'S ILL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Phillies' hopes of solving their problem of infield jitters received a rude jolt late last night when Jimmy Fox was ordered to bed. Manager Fitzsimmons said Fox "is under doctor's orders for at least 48 hours. We don't know what's wrong with him, but his baby just got over pneumonia."

BUD WILSON DECORATED

TORONTO (CP)—Maj. W. Montgomery (Bud) Wilson, former North American figure-skating champion, has been awarded the United States Army's bronze medal for meritorious service, it was learned Tuesday.

Maj. Wilson learned to skate here before leaving some years ago for St. Paul, Minn. He won the North American singles title 12 times, and with his sister, Constance Slatkin of Toronto, captured seven doubles titles.

Racing Plans for U.S. Sell Out Crowd At Navy Swim Pageant

NEW YORK — With the lifting of the ban on racing in the United States, track officials said today they are ready to resume the sport on which more than $1,000,000,000 was wagered in 1944.

Racing strips for the most part, are in good condition, since they have been in use for several weeks, as horsemen kept their runners close to actual racing condition. The machinery behind the sport that yielded $55,971,232 in states' revenue last year also is all set to go.

The ban on the sport since Jan. 3 means that there will be curtailed seasons in New England, New York, Illinois, Maryland and Kentucky since they normally open in April. Track officials met in New York and Illinois today to consider dates.

Here is how the situation shapes up in each section: Maryland — Approximately 1,000 horses quartered at Pimlico and Laurel. Probably will be 10-day joint meeting at Pimlico, May 16 to 26, with a one-day meeting in June to permit running of the Preakness a week after the Kentucky Derby.

Montgomery Loses To Mexican Unknown In Vancouver Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Nick Moran, Mexican welterweight, scored a stunning upset Tuesday night over Cpl. Bob Montgomery, recognized in New York as the world lightweight champion, by winning a decision in 10 rounds at Olympic auditorium.

Montgomery was a prohibitive favorite but he was knocked down in the first round and never seemed to get going against the clever youngster from below the border.

PRACTICE FASTBALL

Joe Foster's girls fastball team, formerly the Unitys, will play K.V.'s juvenile boys in a practice game at the Central Park tonight, starting at 6.30.

Kentucky—Keeneland plans to open at Churchill Downs May 19, followed by regular Downs session. Kentucky Derby nominations closed April 25 and expected to be announced soon as ban lifted. Derby may be run June 2 or 9.

New York — Will open within week or 10 days, with tracks sharing remaining dates.

Illinois — Sportsman Park said to be able to operate in three days. Washington and Arlington Parks going ahead with major stake program, including two $60,000 futurities, Arlington Handicap and American Derby. Racing season may be extended to mid-November.

New England—Track officials announced today Narragansett will open 25-day meeting Saturday, and reopen Labor Day for 30 days; Suffolk Downs will hold 34-day meeting, ending week of Aug. 1, and Rockingham will run 18 days in August and close season with 36-day meeting. California — Santa Anita planning summer meeting, holding many of its rich stakes usually run during winter season; Bay Meadows also ready to resume.

'Y' Stars Compete In Vancouver Meet

The Y.M.C.A. swimming team has accepted an invitation from the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club to an open meet to be held at the Crystal Pool, Vancouver, on Saturday, May 19, Coach Archie McKinnon announced today.

Coach McKinnon will take 16 swimmers to participate in the 20 senior, junior and juvenile events for boys and girls on the program.

Browns Halt Washington

St. Louis greeted the eastern visitors like long-lost brothers today after the overdue Browns rocked Washington 7 to 1 in the first inter-sectional tilt of the season.

It was against the brethren from the Atlantic seaboard that Luke Sewell's 1944 "Cinderella gang" clinched the American League flag a year ago, and Sportsman's Park customers were hoping the new edition could pull out of the second division in the long home stand ahead.

Nelson Potter, the ace in the hole who was the "stopper" for the Browns last season, turned in his best job of the season with a brilliant three-hitter.

It could well have been a one-hitter, for George Case's leadoff single in the first was the only safety until Rick Ferrell opened the ninth with another one-baser. Pinch hitter Joe Ventura followed with another blow, also a single.

Rookie outfielder Boris Martin, counted heavily in Sewell's winter plans, because of his 350 season in Toledo, finally began to come through with a single, double and triple off Johnny Niggeling and reliever Al Carrasquel.

LEADERS GO DOWN

Red Embree, another promising freshman who had failed to hit the win circle, finally made it in pitching Cleveland to a 7 to 1 decision over the league-leading Chicago White Sox.

The Baltimore grad with the blazing fireball had impressed, despite two tough defeats by Detroit, but showed plenty of stuff yesterday in beating Orval Grove.

Felix Mackiewicz, another Oriole product, belted a two-run round-tripper that started Grove to his doom.

Sell Out Crowd At Navy Swim Pageant

Highlighted by the picturesque pattern swimming by a group of 12 Wrens, under the direction of Wren Hazel Smith, the Royal Canadian Navy presented its water pageant at the Crystal Garden Tuesday night before a packed house. Large number of people were turned away at the doors.

An added feature to the repeat performance was the underwater lighting, giving a smart effect to several swimming numbers by the Wrens.

Featured were two numbers—sailboats in the moonlight and a water waltz—in which perfect exhibitions of swimming form and beauty of setting combined with a background of music by the R.C.N. Band.

Exhibition of the use of diving apparatus, the evolution of the back and breaststrokes and the gradual development of speed swimming with a running commentary over the public address system held the attention of the galleries. A diversified diving exhibition by three sailors, with comedy dives by two of the clowns, was well received.

Two match races provided keen competition. In the first, Wrens from the W.T. drivers defeated a team of telegraphers in a 150-yard medley relay, while AB, George Fry, former Y.M.C.A. swimming star, won a 50-yard freestyle event from three opponents in the second.

A monster carnival and dance followed the pageant with most of the crowd thronging the dance floor and the midway until the finish. All proceeds from the show will go to the R.C.N. Benevolent Fund.

Why "Donation Day"? Because C.C.F. election funds comprise voluntary contributions. See Margaret Carr, 648 Yates, tomorrow.

Merritton Cats Win Canadian Cage Title

VANCOUVER (CP)—Merritton Hayes Hellcats came to Vancouver to defend the Montreal Cup, the symbol of Canadian men's basketball supremacy.

They brought the huge silver trophy with them and they will take it back home when they leave, as they defeated Vancouver Lauries 56 to 41 here last night in the fourth game of the best-of-five final. Previously Merritton won the first two games and lost the third.

Lauries lacked the smooth polish of the Merritton hoopers and so for the first time in Canadian basketball history, an eastern team defeated a western team on the west's home grounds. Lauries lost the first game 50 to 49, the second 56 to 47 and then eked out a narrow 40 to 38 win over the Hellcats.

In last night's game both squads appeared nervous. Hellcats, after Lauries sharp showing Monday night, were strictly wary, and Vancouver also seemed inclined to play it slow and cagey.

TAKE BIG LEAD

Taking over the scoring stint early in the game, Matt Mazza shook off the attentions of Sandy Robertson, repeatedly, and banged in 15 counters of assorted varieties before half time. Lauries were on the short end of a 32 to 15 count when they fled off the floor.

In the remaining stanzas, Kenny Lawn checked Mazza and the big boy, after scoring 64 points in the series, was held in check.

But the damage was done. Bill Anderson found the mark and dropped in 11 points through the Hellcat hoop, but Sal Maglie got 10 for Merritton. Everything Lauries did, the Hellcats matched and they wound up scoring 14 points each in the final count.

Teams and scores follow: Merritton—Brunette 11, Mazza 17, Maglie 10, Syracuse 9, Pastore 2, Martinez 7. Vancouver—Robertson 1, Pomfret 1, Kermode 2, Anderson 11, McGeer 12, Lawn 12, Freeman, Stevenson 2.

Federal Probe Ordered As Halifax Wrecked, Looted

By SYD THOMAS
HALIFAX (CP)—A scene of destruction unequalled since the Halifax explosion of the First Great War greeted this seaport city this morning as it awakened after Tuesday's $1,000,000 victory riot—a disaster echoed in smaller measure in Dartmouth, across the harbor, in the little town of Kentville, 50 miles away, and in Sydney, a city of 30,000 in the Cape Breton mining district. Two buildings stood burned and gutted, virtually all stores in the main business sections were smashed and looted, and shattered glass and wreckage littered the streets. Those were the results of an orgy of V-E day drinking, looting and destruction that was halted only after a curfew was clamped on the city at 8 Tuesday night and the streets were cleared.

Mayor Alan M. Butler in a statement today said measures taken to halt the rioting had been successful, and that "any further disorders can be satisfactorily controlled."

PROBE ORDERED
(An immediate investigation of the Halifax "peace" riots has been ordered by the federal government, it was announced in Ottawa today. Hon. J. L. Halsey, Acting Prime Minister, stated that E. L. Cousins, wartime administrator of Canadian Atlantic Ports, had been instructed to "investigate all phases of the situation that has arisen in Halifax, and to report to the government at the earliest possible moment.")

(Meanwhile, there was no comment on the Halifax disturbances from naval service headquarters.)

An additional military force was rushed to Halifax Tuesday night in case it should prove necessary to apply martial law or take force to quell the outbreaks, which some naval ratings described as a "vengeance" or "protest" demonstration against the way they had been treated by landlords and merchants in Halifax.

Civilians and service people had brought the riot under control by midnight Tuesday night, and only scattered looters were picked up during the night, police reported.

DARTMOUTH SUFFERS
Dartmouth shared the same fate as Halifax on a smaller scale. Many store windows were smashed, fires broke out and some looting was reported. In Kentville a mob of 1,000 servicemen and civilians stormed the liquor store and looted its contents before they were dispersed by troops from nearby Aldershot camp. In Sydney demonstrators raided a liquor store, smashed windows and looted about 30 stores.

Haligonians who wondered why the mob had turned on them to destroy virtually the heart of the city by looting and burning, wondered, too, how the damage would be paid for. It will be days before the total loss can be estimated, but it probably will run well past the $1,000,000 mark.

After petering out early Tuesday morning, the rioting broke out early Tuesday afternoon as the mob polished off most of the remaining stock in the liquor stores, looted Keith's Brewery, then started their round of window smashing and looting.

LOOTERS LOADED
By late afternoon the main business thoroughfares were a shambles, with the crash of breaking plate glass sounding from all sides, and looters going in all directions with armloads of fur coats, dresses, shoes, cigarettes, jewelry and articles of all descriptions.

Showcases and store furnishings were smashed indiscriminately, and contents of furniture stores were dragged to the street and destroyed.

Serious trouble started after the mob had looted the People's Credit Jewelry store on Barrington Street, then set fire to excelsior and waste in the basement. Two of the ringleaders among the sailors were taken to the police station Tuesday night, but no charges were laid.

LIST CIVILIAN
Goods to Be Made
OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian manufacturers soon will be enabled to revert to the manufacture of a broad list of goods for domestic consumption which were restricted or banned during the war, it was learned today. An announcement is expected to be made Friday by the Prices Board.

The manufacturers will be given permission to manufacture goods for domestic use provided they can obtain the necessary materials and labor.

1,000 Troops Sent

Racing Ban Lifted
WASHINGTON (AP)—Immediate lifting of the midnight entertainment curfew and the ban on horse and dog racing was announced today.

Fred M. Vinson, Director of War Mobilization and Reconstruction, said the action was effective as of today and quipped: "The curfew shall not ring to night."

He said the lifting of the ban on race meets did not affect restrictions of the Office of Defense Transportation on the shipment of race horses.

B.C. May Get More Liquor But At Higher Prices

News that will both sadden and gladden hearts of liquor drinkers was announced today in Ottawa and Victoria.

According to Ottawa the end of rationing is being considered.

According to W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the B.C. Liquor Control Board, action taken today by Ottawa will probably result in an increase of retail liquor prices in B.C.

An upswing in retail liquor prices was foreseen by Mr. Kennedy with the announcement in Ottawa by Finance Minister Isley that complete control of the prices at which alcoholic beverages may be sold is being restored to the provinces.

Exempting of all sales of alcoholic beverages from the price ceiling would result in the distilleries, whose prices up to now have been controlled, being able to charge liquor control boards what they wanted for their products. Since the cost of production has increased, Mr. Kennedy said, he saw no chance of distilleries decreasing their prices.

The increased cost to the liquor control board will necessitate increasing retail prices.

Mr. Isley's announcement was an extension of action taken in April, 1942, when sales of alcoholic beverages when made by provincial liquor control boards or similar government bodies, were exempted from pricing regulations. "In recognition of the fact that profits from such sales are an important element in provincial revenue."

The Ottawa announcement said it was understood that the Dominion government was considering the lifting of other restrictions on the sale of wine and liquor in view of the cessation of hostilities.

At San Francisco last week Prime Minister King said that there might be an immediate relaxation of sale restrictions with the end of war if there were sufficient stocks available to meet demands.
